

Title:

SPECIAL SESSION: Board Leadership: Why Nurses Belong in the Board Room

Keywords:

Nurse Executive, Academic Dean and Nurse Leader

Purpose:

Discuss the value and importance of nurse leaders serving on the board of a health care organizations. Explain and provide an overview of Sigma Theta Tau International's Board Leadership Institute (BLI).

Summary:

The 2011 Institute of Medicine (IOM) report The Future of Nursing: Leading Change, Advancing Health acknowledged the significance nurse leaders have in promoting change and improvement to America's health care system. In order to effectively initiate this transformation nurse leaders need to shift their care delivery knowledge and expertise into the boardroom. Developing the leadership skills, and competencies to assume board positions require an understanding strategic governance, networking, community awareness and a strong desire to volunteer. Sigma Theta Tau International's Board Leadership Institute (BLI) provides executive nurse leaders with the relevant information enabling them elevate their professional practice to an organization's board.

Slot:

LC 05: Friday, September 26, 2014: 3:30 PM-4:45 PM

References:

N/A

Learning Activity:

LEARNING OBJECTIVES	EXPANDED CONTENT OUTLINE	TIME ALLOTTED	FACULTY/SPEAKER	TEACHING/LEARNING METHOD	EVALUATION/FEEDBACK
Example Critique selected definition of the term, "curriculum"	Example Definitions of "curriculum" Course of study Arrangements of instructional materials The subject matter	Example 20 minutes	Example Name, Credentials	Example Lecture PowerPoint presentation Participant feedback	Example Group discussion: What does cultural training mean to you?

	that is taught Cultural "training"
	Planned engagement of learners
Understand the perspective nurses bring to boards	Discuss the voice of nursing on boards	37	Cynthia Vlasich, MBA, BSN, RN	PPT	Group discussion
Increase knowledge and articulate the value of nurses on boards	Discuss what organizations are looking for in board members and how nurses fit into the organization	38	Christy Oakes, MSN, RN, ONC	PPT	Group discussion